Explanations

<sup>1</sup> eg. School university college

<sup>4</sup> When you rent an apartment during the week away from your home because of your work, then you could deduct these costs; but excluded hotels.

<sup>5</sup> If you've taken a course for your business education, (eg. Language, coaching etc.) these costs could be deducted

<sup>6</sup> If you live in a block with a community, communal costs are potentially deductible. If you live in your own house the connection fees for eg. Water, waste water etc. could also be deducted.

<sup>7</sup> When you live in a community there are sometimes contributions for a specific fund reserved for significant renovations. These costs could be deducted

<sup>8</sup> If you are not working or self-employed, you normally have to pay some AHV-fees. These costs are deductible.

<sup>9</sup> Only certain donations are acceptable, please send us the details and we can check this.

<sup>10</sup> If you live in the canton Zug, part of your monthly rent is deductible. This may also apply to other cantons in the future.

<sup>13</sup> If you cover the cost of your own or your parents care/nursing home costs these could be deductible.

<sup>14</sup> We require the bank statements of your family (Partner 1, Partner 2 and children) worldwide. (even when paying taxes in the foreign country) Within the Swiss tax return all assets need to be declared to ascertain your tax rates.

<sup>16</sup> Only applicable if; you have received lump-sum capital from your 2nd or 3rd pillar pension.
